NOTES AND ORDERS.

SUBJECT No. 30.

Exemption from the operation of the Arms Regulation.

Mr. S. R. Balakrishna Rao, B.A., LL.B., Shimoga Municipality.

Summary of discussion.—Members of the bar of over five years' standing and land-holders paying more than Rs. 200 kandayam may be exempted from the operation of the Mysore Arms Regulation.

Reply of Government.—Noted.

Land holders of approved loyalty and of good position, according to ~~according~~ lists that may be issued from time to time by Govt, are exempted under clause 9 of Rule 1 of the Arms Rules. In the case of Municipal Councillors H.H. the Maharaja has recently declined to grant a general exemption, this case also being provided for by the clause above referred to. No provision seems to have been made for members of the bar. Subd. for orders.

2 There is no principle in exempting a lawyer merely because he happens to be of more than five years' standing.

3 Please put up a draft order that a general exemption as prayed for seems unnecessary.

however, declined to grant wholesale exemptions. The Dt. Magte of Bangal again recommended Mr. Sabhapati Iyer's case for consideration. Thereupon it was decided that each case should be dealt with separately on its merits and Mr. Sabhapathi Iyer was exempted. No lists seem to have ever been published.

SUBJECT

In Clause 9 of Rule 1. of the Rules published with notification no. J 1782-Police 7 L J.
Mis 65 dated the 26th December 1905 provision has been made to exempt candidates of approved loyalty and good position from ~~acting~~ the operation of ~~certain~~ the provisions of the Arms Regulation.
As regards members of the bar, the mere fact
of their being such for a period of five years does not ~~alone~~, of itself, ~~form~~ constitute sufficient ground for ~~sufficient to entitle them~~
~~to~~ justify the grant of an exemption to them as prayed for. In the circumstances Govt. do not consider it necessary
to alter the existing rules.
